DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

Figure 6 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2 and 5-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Williams, U.S. Patent 3,946,197.

Williams discloses the claimed method and apparatus for treating water comprising the steps of heating purified water while applying a high voltage, within the claimed range to the purified water (see col. 2, lines 22-67). The water would be purified, since the boiler would use municipal water or purified water.

Therefore, the claims are rejected.

Claims 1-2 and 5-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Scatoloni, U.S. Patent 3,925,638.

Scatoloni discloses the claimed method and apparatus for treating water comprising the steps of heating purified water while applying a high voltage, within the claimed range to the purified water (see col. 2, lines 7-27). The water would be purified, since the boiler would use municipal water or purified water.

Accordingly, the claims are rejected.

Claims 1, 3, 5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Roberts, U.S. Patent 4,369,776.

Roberts discloses the claimed method and apparatus for treating water comprising the steps of heating purified water around the claimed range while applying a high voltage, wherein the heating includes the claimed temperature (see col. 2, lines 27-56). The water would be purified, since the water would be municipal water, which is purified.

Thus, the claims are rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 3-4 and 7-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Williams as applied to claims above.

The Williams does not disclose the exact temperature claimed. It does however, disclose the use of water below the boiling point of water, because no steam is produced (see col. 1, lines 9-13). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the disclosure of the Williams patent, because the patent teaches that the water would be heated to below the boiling point of water.

Claims 3-4 and 7-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Scatoloni as applied to claims above, and further in view of Roberts or Williams.

The Scatoloni patent does not disclose the range of temperature. The Roberts and Williams patents disclose the use of water having temperatures around the 100 degrees as claimed (see column 2 in both patents). Consequently, the invention as a whole would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the disclosure of the Scatoloni patent, because such modification to temperature is shown by the secondary patents which teach the range for heating the water.
